BOOK CLUB NEWS FOR JULY 2014

When Vanessa Diffenbaugh’s first novel appeared in bookstores, some reviewers appeared to be in danger of running out of adjectives (“…a mesmerizing story teller”…”an original and brilliant first novel”…”sounds like something Dickens might have come up with…”

Others, perhaps able to contain their enthusiasm a little easier, were somewhat more restrained (“….I think it only fair to warn you that central character Victoria Jones is going to break your heart three ways from Sunday…make you want to pick her up, shake her and scream ‘why can’t you let yourself be happy?’ …”

After University Club Book Group’s members gather at 6 p.m. Thursday, July 10, in the Front Lounge for cocktails, dinner and discussion of Diffenbaugh’s The Language of Flowers, they will take a month’s vacation through August. They will next meet in the evening of September 11 to dine and discuss The Sixth Extinction, by Elizabeth Kolbert.

Any University Club member is welcome to attend any Book Club meeting that appears interesting Dinner reservations must be made by the Tuesday noon preceding the meeting by calling 338-5439.
