UC BOOK CLUB NEWS

The Sport of Kings by C.E. Morgan is the April UC Book Club selection for their dinner meeting scheduled April 13 at 6pm. Catherine Woodman will lead the discussion.

Do mark your calendars: We leave our winter noon luncheons to return in April to our usual Thursday evening dinner meetings held by the UC Book Club throughout most of the year.

The Sport of Kings is a spiraling tale of wealth and poverty, racism and rage. It is an unflinching portrait of lives cast in shadow by the enduring legacy of slavery. C.E. Morgan, who received a 2016 Wyndham-Campbell Prize for Fiction, has given his life to a tale as mythic and fraught as the South itself – a moral epic for our time.

Upcoming Selections:

May: The Japanese Lover by Isabel Allende

June: Guantanamo Diary by Mohamedou Ould Slahi

July: In the Darkroom by Susan Faludi
