UC BOOK CLUB NEWS

Homo Deus, A Brief History of Tomorrow by Yuval Noah Harari is the January 2018 UC Book Club Selection. Dorothy Paul will lead the discussion at this noon luncheon meeting scheduled Tuesday, January 9.

Over the past century, humankind has managed to do the impossible – turn the uncontrollable forces of nature – namely famine, plague and war – into manageable challenges. Today more people die from eating too much than from eating too little; more people die from old age than from infectious diseases, and more people commit suicide than are killed by soldiers, terrorists and criminals combined. We are the only species in earth's long history that has single-handedly changed the entire planet, and we no longer expect any higher being to mold our destinies for us.

Homo Deus explores the projects, dreams, and nightmares that all shape the twenty-first century, from overcoming death to creating artificial life. This book also opens our eyes to a vast range of alternative possibilities with provocative arguments on every page, among them: While the industrial revolution created the working class, the next big revolution will create the useless class.

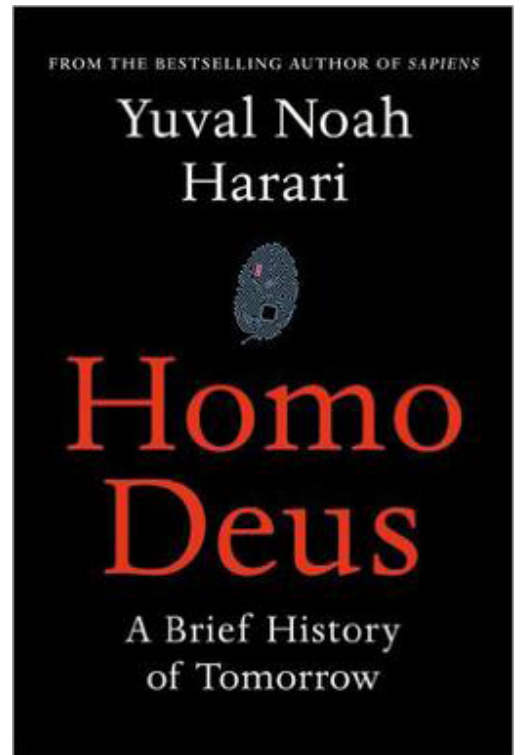

UPCOMING UC BOOK CLUB SELECTIONS:

February: Al Franken, Giant of the Senate by Al Franken

March: The End of Your Life Book Club by Will Schwalbe

April: Clementine: The Life of Mrs. Winston Churchill by Sonia Purnell

New UC members are always welcome to this monthly book club event.
