UC BOOK CLUB NEWS

In the Darkroom by Susan Faludi is the July UC Book Club selection for the dinner meeting scheduled Thursday, July 13 at 6pm. Dena Dillion will lead the discussion.

Susan Faludi's extraordinary inquiry explores the meaning of identity in the modern world and in her own haunted family saga. When this feminist writer learned that her 76 year old father – long estranged and living in Hungary – had undergone sex reassignment surgery, that inquiry would turn personal and urgent. Her struggles to come to grips with her father's metamorphosis takes her across borders – historical, political, religious, sexual – to bring her face-to-face with the question of the age: Is identity something you choose or is it the very thing you can't escape?

New UC members are always welcome to this monthly book club event. For more information, contact Joanne Woodman, Chair. Home: 499-1225; Cell: 216-402-7761

In response to the question if reading has been essential to his success, Bill Gates states, "Absolutely. You don't really start getting old until you stop learning. Every book teaches me something new or helps me see things differently." The View, Time, June 5, 2017. Gates releases favorite recent reads several times a year on Gates Notes.
